

ATLANTA PIONEER DIES FROM BUGGY ACCIDENT

Thomas Moore, Aged 86, Fatally Injured When Horse Ran Away Thursday.

Thomas Moore, one of Fulton county's oldest and most prominent pioneers, died last night at 7 o'clock at the Wesley Memorial hospital from injuries received Thursday afternoon when his horse ran away and threw him and his wife from the buggy. The accident occurred on the Marietta road near his home at Bolton, Ga. His wife was unhurt, but a few bruises, but Mr. Moore struck on his head and was fatally hurt.

Mr. Moore was 86 years old and had been in excellent health. He was born near Abbeville, S. C., and moved to Fulton county while a young man. Sixty years ago he ran the old mill on Peachtree creek which was burned by Union troops during the war. Mr. Moore rebuilt the mill and operated it until about ten years ago.

He was a land-owner of considerable means and at one time conducted a grain store in Atlanta. He was a prominent Sunday school worker, being one of the founders of the World's International Sunday School convention. He attended one of these conventions in Jerusalem at the age of 70. He was a member of the Mt. Vernon Baptist church.

Mr. Moore's parents were from Ireland and his mother belonged to the family of nobility, the Dunneaths. The family had a small plantation in this country. Later Mr. Moore's mother was offered to marry a young man who would give up his American citizenship and he refused to do so.

Mr. Moore was married first to Miss Elizabeth DeFoe, and from this marriage he had three children, Thomas, as Mrs. James M. and Virgil H. Moore, Atlanta. His second wife was Miss Allie Sims, who survives him. The body was taken to Patterson's chapel and funeral arrangements will be completed later.

Mr. Moore has often told of hunting deer where The Constitution was then a swamp. An old blind of oak on Alabama street, testified Mr. Moore, could have purchased them for a hundred dollars.

Leading Pulpit Orators Promise to Participate in Big Methodist Revival

Rev. E. F. Frazer, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist church, Atlanta, returned yesterday from Macon, where he has been participating in a series of special services.

Dr. Frazer will have charge of the big Methodist revival at St. Paul's church and family church are planning for this April 17 to 24 inclusive.

"We have secured some of the leading men in the Methodist church in America today," said Dr. Frazer, "and we expect to accomplish great evangelistic work. Bishop John C. Kilgus, Dr. Charles L. Goodell, of New York, pastor of the largest Methodist church in the world, Dr. George R. Stuart, Dr. Plato Durham and Dr. S. A. Steele are among the leading preachers who have consented to come. All the Methodists of Atlanta and throughout the part of the south will be invited to participate.

"We are organizing a big chorus choir in Atlanta among the Methodists, which will sing at these services. It will be directed by Professor E. O. Egan, of Chicago, the famous hymn book author and singer. We are planning to make this revival something different from any recent religious meetings in Atlanta. We are going back to the old times for our inspiration."

McCord Had a Leading Part in Framing Currency Bill

It will be of interest to Atlantans to know that Joseph A. McCord, vice president of the Third National Bank of Atlanta, was one of the first men in the United States to launch the movement which has culminated in Atlanta being chosen a reserve center by the government.

At a meeting of the American Bankers' association, in St. Louis, in 1895, the question of reforming the currency laws was first raised. The association appointed a committee on federal legislation. Arthur Reynolds, of Des Moines, Iowa, now president of the American Bankers' association, was appointed chairman of the committee, and the other members named were John L. Hamilton, then president of the association; Edward F. Swinney, president of the First National Bank of Kansas City; W. V. Cox, president of the Second National Bank of Washington; and Joseph A. McCord of Atlanta.

President Wilkinson Praises Work of Atlanta Committee

Members of the joint committee of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce and the Clearing House association were called Friday over the sweeping victory scored by Atlanta in winning the regional bank.

Each member of the committee worked the early part of December. J. K. Orr was selected as chairman. The other members of the committee were as follows:

R. F. Maddox, John K. Ottley, Dr. W. J. Black, John W. Grant and Joseph A. McCord, Walter G. Cooper, secretary of the chamber of commerce, was elected secretary for the committee.

Each member of the committee worked faithfully gathering data and putting it in shape for presentation before the reserve bank committee which was composed of Secretary McCord, of the treasury; Houston, of the department of agriculture, and Williams, comptroller of the currency. Briefs were prepared by President Moll R. Wilkinson, of the chamber of commerce; R. S. Wessels, Charles L. King, J. W. Patterson, Oscar Eliaz, A. P. Cole, Milton Morgan, J. Quinn and Wilmer L. Moore. The briefs were submitted to the bank committee as supplemental to the oral arguments which were made two days before the committee.

President Wilkinson, of the chamber of commerce, declared Friday that it was the formidable array of facts and figures presented by the members of the joint committee, and the personal efforts of Senator Hoke Smith which were responsible for Atlanta being selected.

Atlanta should unite in thanking the committee and Senator Hoke Smith for their great efforts," President Wilkinson said. "Our debt to those gentlemen is a great one."

Wilson Names Marshalls. Washington, April 3.—The president made these nominations: United States marshals: Frank M. Miller, of Amite City, La., eastern district of Louisiana; T. B. Burch, of Martinsville, Va., western district of Virginia.

Atlanta, vice president of the Third National Bank.

The committee read a report, and based on that report, was organized the currency committee of the American Bankers' association. The committee consisted of fifteen members, of which A. Barton Huggins, of the Chase National Bank of New York, was chairman. The committee is in existence today, and it is due to its efforts, in a large measure, that the present law is in effect. The committee conferred with a like commission appointed under the Aldrich-Vreeland act.

Out of the discussions which followed was evolved the present federal reserve act, which is considered the most excellent currency measure, and one which meets the requirements of the time.

Vice President McCord is one of the best posted men on the federal reserve act in the country. He has given it thought and study prior to 1906, and knows every phase of the bill.

4 NEW YORK GUNMEN TO BE GIVEN REPRIEVE

Stay of Execution to Be Granted Until After Becker's Trial.

Albany, N. Y., April 3.—United States Governor Glynn changes his mind between now and April 7, a reprieve for the four New York gunmen, under sentence to die in Sing Sing during the week beginning April 13, will be granted that day.

If granted, the stay of execution will be until the second trial of Charles Becker, who, with the gunmen, was found guilty of the murder of Herman Rosenthal. District Attorney Whitman has said he intends to try Becker a second time as soon as possible, but it generally is believed his case cannot be completed before from three to six months hence.

The governor today declined to discuss the case, but the information that he now favors reprieve came from an authoritative source. Every chance would be given the prisoners, the governor believes, to show their innocence. Their attorneys have said such evidence will be produced.

ATTRACTION PROGRAM FOR RAILROAD, Y. M. C. A.

The railroad men have decided attractive program for their service at the Railroad Young Men's Christian association rooms Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Julian S. The Temple quartet, of College Park, will sing, and the general song service will be led by the association's excellent orchestra. A cordial greeting will await all men, and they are invited to join the railroad men in this very helpful service.

BEAUTY AND ADVENTURE DESERTED CHAUFFEUR

Had They Been Present, Young Man Might Have Fared Better in Court.

Beauty and Adventure were not in municipal court, Judge Luther Roser, Jr., presiding, Friday afternoon, to testify for C. L. Whitehead, of 164 Marietta street. If they had, he might not have been held over for the criminal court under $100 bond. Then again, he might have been held under $200, for the law is stern, and assesses Beauty and Adventure quite as often as it pardons them.

Whitehead may be accepted as an average young man of 29. He is employed by the Atlanta Envelope company, 164 Marietta street. Among the various accomplishments of youth, Whitehead possesses a general working knowledge of automobiles. On occasion, he has put this at the disposal of P. C. Calloway, manager of the Cleveland-Manning Piano company. Mr. Calloway then had an automobile—the "the" being used advisedly.

Monday night a week ago Mr. Calloway, after employing Whitehead's services as chauffeur for some time, sent him around to the garage with the automobile. After driving two blocks, Whitehead was so unfortunate as to encounter Beauty and Adventure. In court he graphically described them as skirts. Beauty and Adventure—of the skirts—climbed into the auto.

When Whitehead passed the garage he was traveling at full speed, and on a street two blocks away.

All would probably have gone well, even then, for Mr. Calloway occasionally lent Whitehead the car, but about midnight, on the Roosevelt road, something broke and the joy ride came to an abrupt conclusion. It may be observed that at this point Beauty and Adventure disappeared from the scene, leaving nothing except the driver and a wrecked automobile.

Mr. Calloway, on learning of the accident, swore out a warrant against Whitehead, charging him with using the car without permission, which constitutes a misdemeanor. Whitehead's attorney made the point that his client had received permission to drive the car in the garage and that, while the joy ride was a violation of trust, it did not constitute a misdemeanor.

It is a delicate point, said Judge Roser, and bound Whitehead over to the criminal court.

READY FOR CLASH ON FULL TREASURE

Republicans Trying to Line Up Forces Against Wilson—Administration Leaders to Fight Compromise.

Washington, April 2.—The Panama canal bill exemption controversy has reached the simmering stage in the senate, pending consideration of the repeal bill and proposed compromises by the committee on interoceanic canals next week. Leaders on both sides of the fight continued their activities today, however, preparing for the final clash of the great legislative battle.

Such militant spirits were emphasized in the intercurrent developments of the day. One was the concerted effort being made by republican senators to unite against the president's repeal policy on the ground of political expediency, and the other was the reinforced determination of administration leaders to yield to no compromise on the house bill providing for flat repeal of toll exemption for American ships.

Among republican senators who have been classified as doubtful with regard to their intentions concerning the repeal, there is a general tendency to line up against the bill.

To Solidify Democrats. Democratic senators who are championing the president's birthright insist that they welcome this movement, confident that it can have no other effect than to solidify the democrats and aid in assuring success for the administration. Such republicans, while admitting that five of their number cannot be expected to abandon their opposition to the bill, insist that there is every reason to believe that all other majority senators eventually will support the bill.

Such republicans as Senators Root, Lodge, Burton and McCumber are expected to be solidly opposed to toll exemption for American ships, and with these forces the administration leaders retain their confidence. Nothing can prevent toll exemption for the repeal bill. One republican senator who will vote against the repeal bill said today that he was confident the administration had the votes to carry the repeal and that nothing would change the situation.

Whitehead testifies that a bill authorizing the president to charter and operate the Panama canal steamship lines using the Panama canal, which was introduced by Representative Edmonds, of Pennsylvania, and which would permit the president to charter any ship, would be remitted for a period of 30 days, and the amount of such tolls to be paid out of the treasury every 30 months, and the American ships would be required to carry mails of all kinds, without charge to the government.

The contracts would be with first-class vessels trading between the eastern and western coasts of the United States and Mexico, Central and South America, and subject to all existing or future general United States laws. Vessels would be required that these vessels were not railroad-controlled.

All agreements made with other parties and lines, including railroad lines, the bill provides, "shall be approved by the department of commerce, and all freight rates shall be posted with and subject to revision by the proper authorities."

These ships or lines would not be prohibited from prorating with all railroads on an equitable basis, but would be required to agree that in national emergencies they would be held at federal disposal to agree to give preference to goods made and produced in the United States. Tolls would be charged against any part of cargo not originating in the United States or originating in South America and consigned to the United States.

"Give me an illustration of the theory that every cloud has a silver lining," said the speaker.

"When a feller is too sick to go to school," promptly replied the boy at the foot of the class.—Philadelphia Record.

COMMON LAW WIFE GETS PART OF EWALD MILLIONS

Mrs. Golden's Attorneys Agree to Compromise Which Will End Suit.

Louisville, Ky., April 2.—Compromise by which Mrs. Ellen J. Golden, of Ewald, will receive $250,000 cash and $10,000 a year from the $1,000,000 estate of the late Louisville and Nashville Iron master, J. F. Ewald, was agreed upon by the opposing counsel today, and is expected to end the suit for $1,750,000, in which the former St. Louis woman has attempted to prove herself the common law wife of the late eccentric Louisville millionaire.

Under the terms of the agreement, which the court is expected to approve and make final tomorrow, Harry Ewald and Rosa, Ewald's brother and sister, also get $10,000 each, but the custody of the three children, to whom Ewald left his fortune, remains with the Fidelity and Columbia Trust company as executor. Refusal of the trust company to award the children to their mother caused the failure of previous attempts to compromise the case. It also is expected that, with the agreement compromising the case, the court will enter an order adjudging Mrs. Golden the common law widow of Ewald.

Mrs. Golden, whom Ewald met in St. Louis in 1890 and with whom he lived in this city, sued for approximately $1,750,000 of the $1,000,000 estate as her dower right. The children, Helen, Philip and Sterling Ewald, were born in St. Louis. The children, Helen, Philip and Sterling Ewald, were born in St. Louis. COLLEGE MEN FITTED FOR POLITICAL LIFE

New York, April 2.—College men are peculiarly efficient in politics, William F. McCombs, chairman of the national democratic committee, told delegates to the eighth annual convention of the Intercollegiate Civic League last night. Mr. McCombs gave warning, however, that the college man must forget, or never think, that he is a "high brow," for if he does, he's out of politics.

Delegates transferred their session today to Washington, where they will watch congress at work. The convention, which began yesterday, will continue here.

Christ in the midst of the joyous, shouting throngs who greeted Him—

"Hosanna: Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord—"

Despairing Pharisees wailed to one another—

"Behold how you prevail nothing; lo, the world is gone after Him."

But leading citizens had gathered at the call of Caiaphas.

They said—

"If we leave Him thus alone, all people will believe on Him; and the Romans will come and take away our place and nation."

ONLY ONE OF MANY CIVIC GATHERINGS, WHERE, FOR THE GOOD OF THE CITY AND NATION, MEN HAVE PLANNED TO KILL THE TRUTH.

They always fail.

Sacrifice principle for policy?

Behold the blindness of sin—

Caiaphas and his crew saw only a carpenter of Nazareth.

To them, His Gospel of Love, when confronted with the mailed fists of mighty Rome, became only folly. They thought themselves compelled to get rid of Jesus.

For business reasons—to save their city with their cash they crucified the Lord.

Instead of saving, they lost their lives, their wealth, their city, their all—the Romans came.

Caiaphas and Annas with Jerusalem fell.

BUT THE CONQUERING CHRIST MOVES ON.

Oh man, beware!

Reject not the Truth.

You never gain—

You only ruin, when, for so-called business reasons, you seek to sacrifice God's Truth.

Immorality, greed and lawlessness, which ever demand the crucifixion of the Truth—these invariably bring in their train sorrow and suffering.

All history proves—

The cities and civilizations which reject God's Law of Love inevitably fail and fall as did Jerusalem ages ago.

Your Lord—God's living Word—has come.

What will you do with Jesus?

ARMISTED HEIRS LOSE THEIR SUIT

Present Holders of Valuable Property in Atlanta Restrained From Trespass by Court Action.

Thirty minutes after the close of the "Armistice" suit Friday afternoon in the superior court, the jury brought in a verdict for the plaintiffs. This means that the half-million dollar parcel of property between Angier and North avenues, just off Peachtree street, to which the Armistice heirs claimed title, remains in the possession of the present owners.

Sixty-two years ago—in 1852—William Armistice traded the property, which consists of 190 acres, bounded on the north by North avenue, on the east by Barrett street, on the south by Angier avenue and on the west by Randolph street, to R. C. Blackman, for 200 acres in Gwinnett county.

Mr. Blackman, in turn, disposed of the property as he found purchasers, so that today it stands in the hands of a number of people. In some way, however, the deed given by William Armistice to Mr. Blackman was lost, but until about two years ago the title of the subsequent purchasers was not disputed. Then a number of William Armistice's descendants filed a claim that the transaction between Armistice and Blackman had not been valid, and that, legally, the estate had never passed out of the possession of the Armistice family. This was answered by the present owners with an application to the superior court for a cancellation of all claims the Armistice heirs might have against the property and a permanent injunction restraining them from trespass. This was the application which the jury in Judge W. D. Little court granted Friday. It also recommended the granting of the injunction, thus completing the triumph of the plaintiffs.

The litigation in the suit lasted more than two years, and the hearing just concluded occupied ten days.

The attorneys for the plaintiffs were: J. F. Golightly, A. A. & E. L. Meyer, L. E. Rosser and E. M. Mitchell; for the defendants, Judge E. L. Rodgers and William F. Buchanan.
